

BY

BUY

BYE

WORKSHEETS

SHELLEY GRAY

BY/BYE/BUY

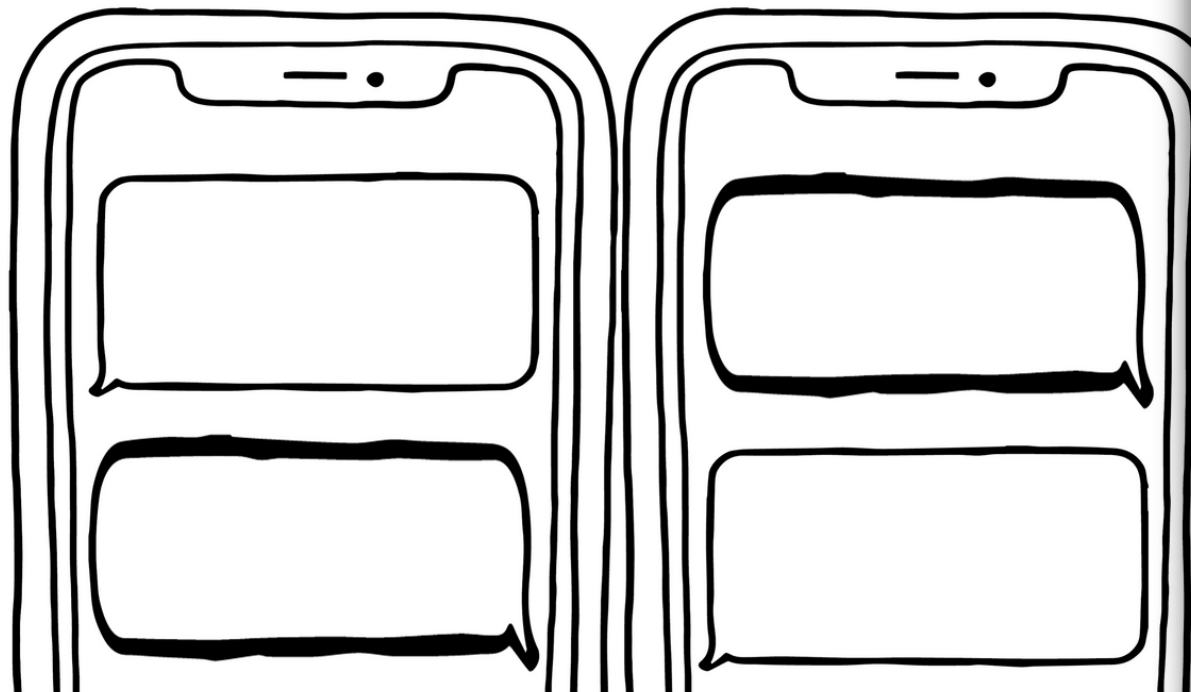

Let's quickly review the different forms of by/bye/buy. When do you use each one?

BY: _____

BYE: _____

BUY: _____

Now write a texting conversation between you and a friend. Include each form of by/bye/buy twice in your conversation.

BY/BYE/BUY

Read each sentence. Whenever you see by/bye/buy used incorrectly, circle it and the correct word on the line.

1. I'd like to by a round trip ticket to Paris, please. _____
2. It's difficult to say buy to your friends when you move away. _____
3. Frank was bitten bye a wasp on his arm. It stung him! _____
4. Candace felt lonely when sat buy herself at lunchtime. _____
5. I must leave now. By-buy! _____
6. If you stop at the store today, will you bye milk and bread? _____
7. You should visit us at our cottage buy the lake this summer. _____
8. If he is going to by a bike, he should bye a helmet too. _____
9. You should bye those shoes. They are on sale! _____
10. We already said by yesterday. _____
11. Jose will recite his speech bye heart for the competition. _____

BY/BYE/BUY

Fill in the blanks with the correct form of by/bye/buy.

1. My neighbor is very quiet since he lives _____ himself.
2. She's going to the farmer's market to _____ fresh vegetables.
3. The child waved _____ to his grandma as they drove away.
4. Will you finish your homework _____ the time we're ready to go?
5. That old owl swoops _____ the barn every night at dusk.
6. Victor wants to _____ a new truck, but he doesn't have enough money.
7. Nathan loves the song " _____, _____ Baby."
8. Do you need to _____ snacks to take on your trip?
9. My aunt gave me a quilt that was sewn _____ hand.
10. I just stopped to say _____ before you go on your vacation.
11. It's so cold outside! Let's sit _____ the fireplace to warm up.
12. The bride will _____ the gown of her dreams to wear at her wedding.
13. Don't forget to _____ your supplies for the new school year.

Are your students struggling with correct forms of

by, buy, and bye?

These independent activity sheets make the perfect supplement to your writing or grammar instruction!

BY/BYE/BUY

Let's quickly review the different forms of by/bye/buy. When do you use

BY: _____

BYE: _____

BUY: _____

Now write a texting conversation between you and a friend. Include each by/bye/buy twice in your conversation.

BY/BYE/BUY

Read each sentence. Whenever you see by/bye/buy used incorrectly, circle it and write the correct word on the line.

- I'd like to by a round trip ticket to Paris, please. _____
- It's difficult to say buy to your friends when you move away. _____
- Frank was bitten bye a wasp on his arm. It stung him! _____
- Candace felt lonely when she sat buy herself at lunchtime. _____
- I must leave now. By-buy! _____
- If you stop at the store today, will you bye milk and bread? _____
- You should visit us at our cottage buy the lake this summer. _____
- If he is going to by a bike, he should bye a helmet too. _____
- You should bye those shoes. They are on sale! _____

BY/BYE/BUY

Fill in the blanks with the correct form of by/bye/buy.

- My neighbor is very quiet since he lives _____ himself.
- She's going to the farmer's market to _____ fresh vegetables.
- The child waved _____ to his grandma as they drove away.
- Will you finish your homework _____ the time we're ready to go?
- That old owl swoops _____ the barn every night at dusk.
- Victor wants to _____ a new truck, but he doesn't have enough money.
- Nathan loves the song "_____, _____ Baby."
- Do you need to _____ snacks to take on your trip?
- My aunt gave me a quilt that was sewn _____ hand.
- I just stopped to say _____ before you go on your vacation.
- It's so cold outside! Let's sit _____ the fireplace to warm up.
- The bride will _____ the gown of her dreams to wear at her wedding.
- Don't forget to _____ your supplies for the new school year.
- Saying _____ can be sad sometimes.
- The boys got in trouble and had to sit _____ the principal's office.
- You don't have to _____ me a gift for my birthday.
- This is difficult, but I'm determined to do it _____ myself.
- Marcus needs to _____ a new winter jacket. He has grown!
- I found this table second-hand on a _____ and sell website.

©Shelley Gray

www.ShelleyGrayTeaching.com

Get them as part of a bundle for even more practice and reinforcement!

BY • BUY • BYE

ACTIVITIES

Bundle

SHELLEY GRAY

BY written by
 BESIDE, NEAR, OR SHOWING WHO PERFORMED AN ACTION
 That story was written by my friend.
 by the water and watched the sunset.

BUY
 PURCHASE
 Do you have enough money to buy that book?
 Could you buy me lunch?

BYE
 SHORT FOR GOODBYE
 I waved bye as we boarded the plane.

18 "_____ for now." Mom said, as she hung up the _____

2 Hand your story in _____ tomorrow morning.

10 _____ some new toys for my dog.

BY/BYE/BUY
 Let's quickly review the different forms of by/bye/buy. When do you use each one?

BY/BYE/BUY
 Fill in the blanks with the correct form of by/bye/buy.
 1. My neighbor is very quiet since he lives _____ himself.
 2. She's going to the farmer's market to _____ fresh vegetables.
 3. The child waved _____ to his grandma as they drove away.
 4. Will you finish your homework _____ the time we're ready to go?
 5. That old owl swoops _____ the barn every night of dusk.
 6. Victor wants to _____ a new truck, but he doesn't have enough money.
 7. Nathan loves the song "_____ Baby."
 8. Do you need to _____ snacks to take on your trip?