

COMPARING FRACTIONS TASK CARDS

SHELLEY
GRAY

Order these fractions from least to greatest. Then represent each one on a number line.

$\frac{5}{6}$ $\frac{1}{6}$ $\frac{2}{6}$

Comparing Fractions Task Cards: Card #1

Sort these fractions into two categories:
Fractions That are Greater than $\frac{6}{12}$ and Fractions That are Less Than $\frac{6}{12}$

$\frac{5}{12}$	$\frac{11}{12}$	$\frac{2}{12}$	$\frac{9}{12}$
$\frac{10}{12}$	$\frac{3}{12}$	$\frac{8}{12}$	$\frac{4}{12}$

Comparing Fractions Task Cards: Card #2

Complete the task:

Write three fractions that are greater than two-sevenths, and that have the denominator 7.

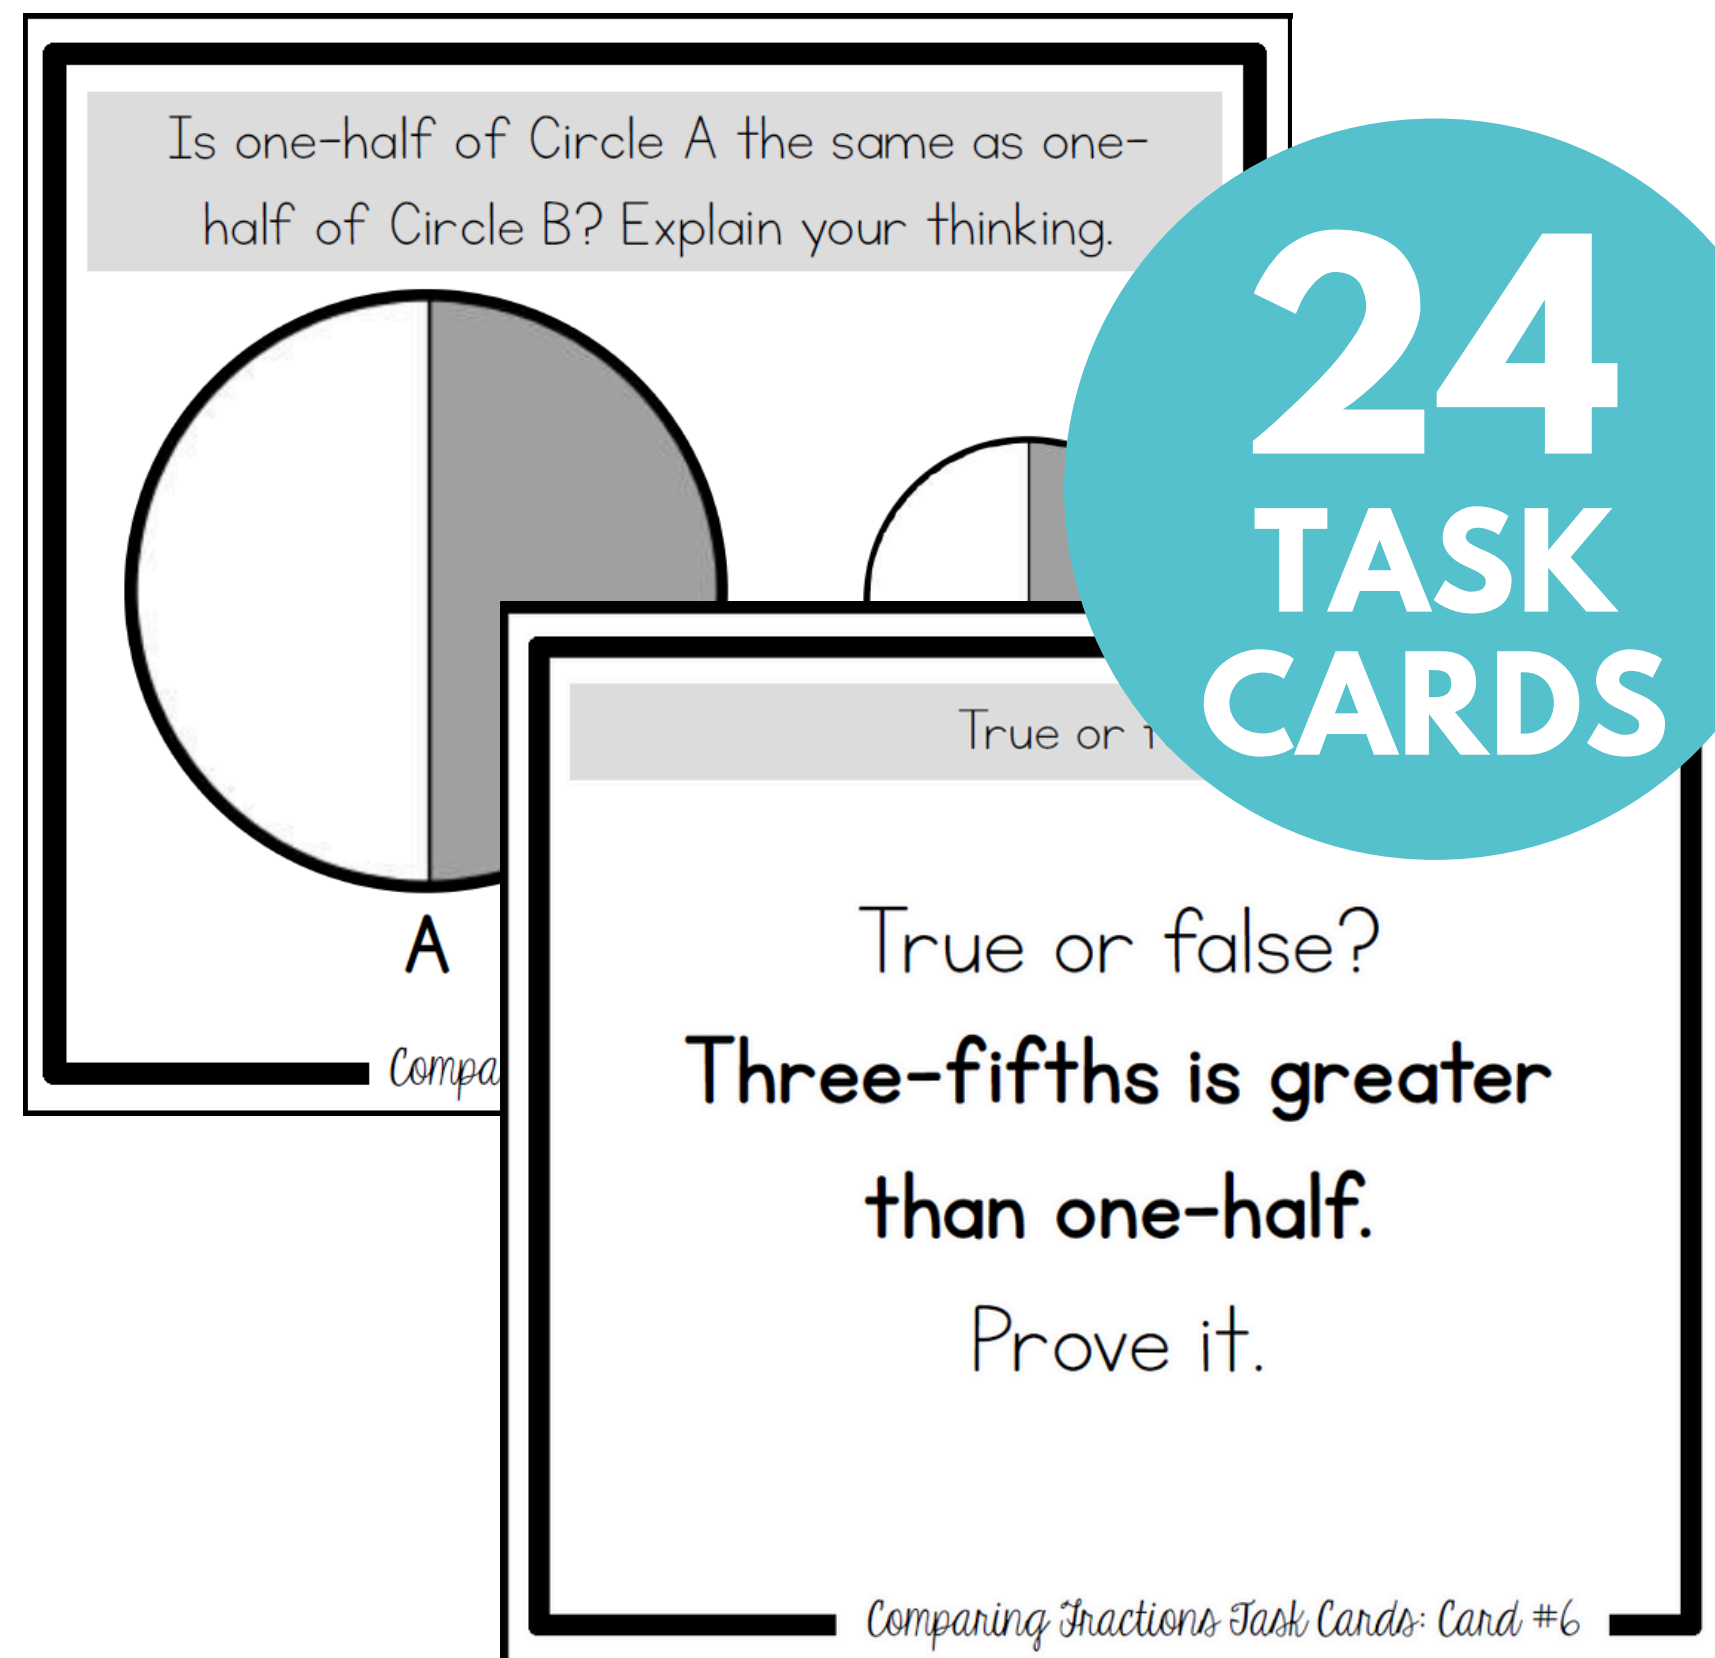

Comparing Fractions Task Cards: Card #3

Are you teaching fractions?

These task cards reinforce fraction concepts by helping students practice the important skill of comparing fractions in a variety of different ways.

The image displays two task cards and a circular badge. The top card, labeled 'Card #6', features a diagram of two circles, A and B. Circle A is a large circle divided vertically into two equal halves, with the right half shaded gray. Circle B is a smaller circle, also divided vertically into two equal halves, with the right half shaded gray. The text on the card asks: 'Is one-half of Circle A the same as one-half of Circle B? Explain your thinking.' The bottom card is partially visible and contains the text: 'True or false? Three-fifths is greater than one-half. Prove it.' A blue circular badge with the text '24 TASK CARDS' is positioned over the right side of the cards. The bottom card also has a footer that reads 'Comparing Fractions Task Cards: Card #6'.

Is one-half of Circle A the same as one-half of Circle B? Explain your thinking.

A

Compa

True or false?

Three-fifths is greater than one-half.

Prove it.

Comparing Fractions Task Cards: Card #6

24 TASK CARDS

These task cards will support your teaching as you teach fractions for understanding and flexibility.

Here's what's included:

24 task cards

recording sheets to help students stay organized

3 vocabulary posters for the classroom