

YOUR

YOU'RE

POSTERS

SHELLEY GRAY

YOU'RE

YOU ARE

You're going to be tired tomorrow if you stay up too late.

Please tell me if you're coming to my

YOUR

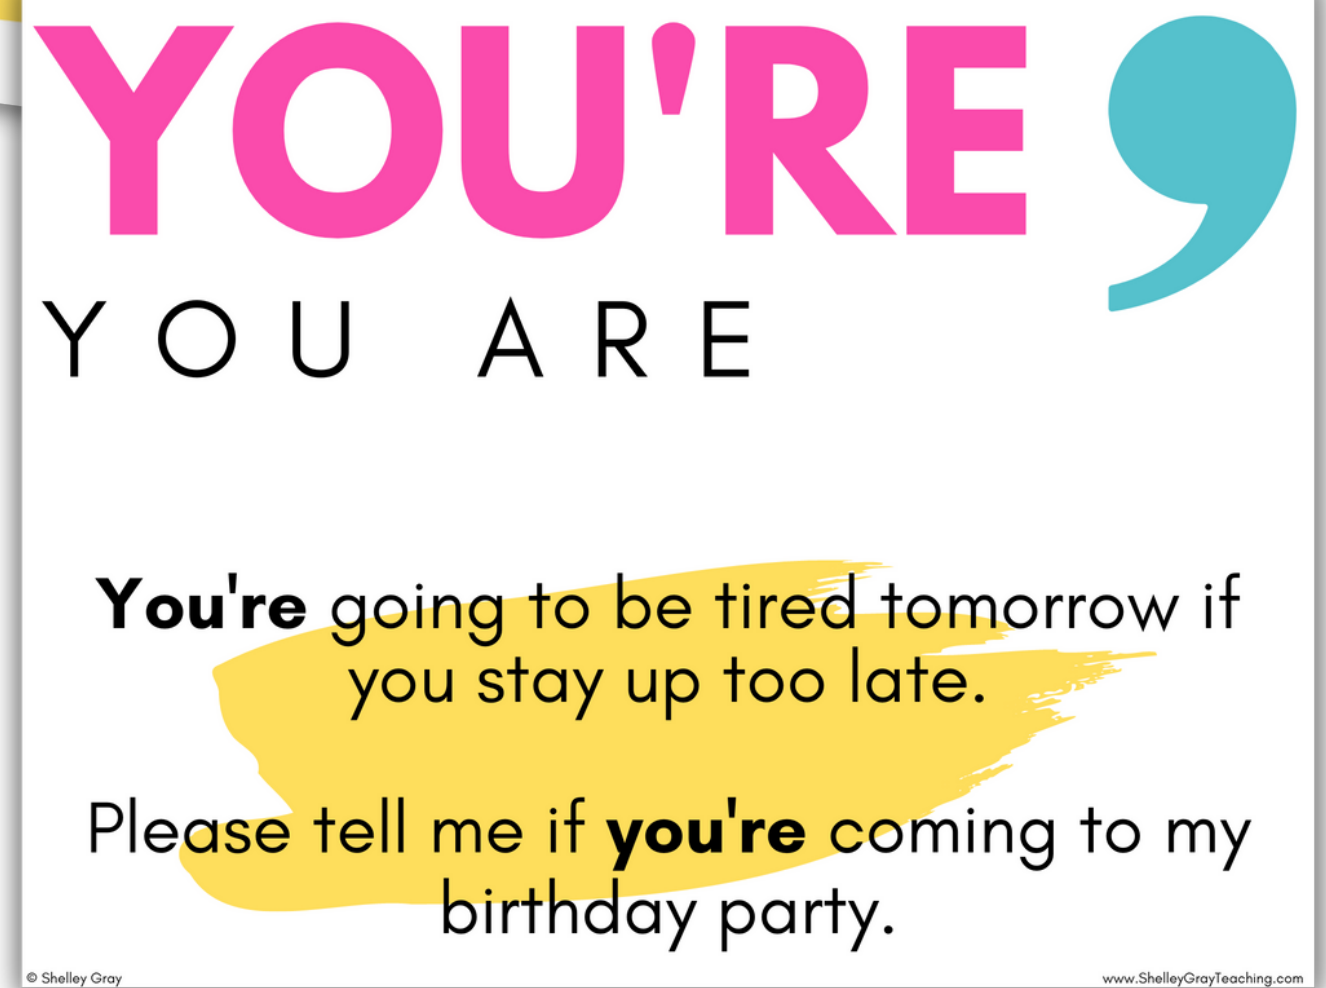

BELONGING

Don't drop your marshmallow in the fire!

Are your students struggling with correct forms of your and you're?

These classroom reference posters make the perfect supplement to your writing or grammar instruction!

Smaller notebook reference cards are also included.

PERFECT FOR WRITER'S
NOTEBOOKS

Get them as part of a bundle for even more practice and reinforcement!

YOUR • YOU'RE ACTIVITIES

Bundle
SHELLEY GRAY

YOU'RE ,
YOU ARE

You're going to be tired tomorrow if you stay up too late.

Please tell me if you're coming to my birthday party.

21 What are you growing in garden?

13 Please sign _____ name on the line.

4 When _____ finished painting, wash the brush in the sink.

YOUR BELONGING

Don't drop your marshmallow in the fire!

Is it your birthday today?

YOUR/YOURE

Let's quickly review the different forms of your/you're. When do you use each one?

YOU: _____

YOU'RE: _____

Now write a texting conversation between you/you're twice in your conversation.

YOUR/YOURE

Fill in the blanks with the correct form of your/you're.

1. Do you know what time _____ baseball game starts?
2. When _____ kind to others, they will be kind back to you.
3. _____ not allowed to text _____ friends during class.
4. You will need _____ passport to travel to Mexico.
5. It's _____ turn to wash the dishes and sweep the floor.
6. There's no doubt that _____ better at shooting baskets than I am.
7. Please raise _____ hand if you want to ask a question.
8. Are you sure _____ feeling alright? You look ill.
9. Remember to mind _____ manners at Grandma's house!
10. _____ smile cheers me up when I'm feeling sad.
11. My boss said that _____ the perfect person for the job!
12. Gabby wants to know what _____ doing after school.