Terms of Use

This digital notebook is for commercial use. These terms are subject to change without notice. Please read carefully.

YOU MAY NOT:

- sell or give away “as is” pages. These templates should only serve to enhance the educational content within your product – the digital notebook itself should not be your product’s primary focus.
- claim these designs as your own. Purchasing the item has not transferred the copyright to you.
- sell or give away completely editable PowerPoint versions, where it is possible to alter the main design of the notebook (tabs, tab colors, etc). If you are providing an editable copy of your product to buyers, the notebook design must be flattened, leaving only your own content editable.

YOU MAY:

- Use these templates to design your own digital notebook creations for resale. You must add content to the pages in order to create a new, unique product. The focus of the notebook should be your content, and not the notebook itself.

PLEASE DO:

- Provide credit to Shelley Gray (www.ShelleyGrayTeaching.com) in the form of a text or image link on at least one page in the document.
- Enjoy designing your own unique creations!
