

shelley gray's

GUIDED READING

PROMPT CARDS

CREATED BY SHELLEY GRAY

Who is the main character of this story?

Which character in this story is most like you?
Why?

Make a text-to-self connection.

Find a word that not seen before you think it n

Copyright Shelley Gray 2018
All rights reserved by the author

Permission to copy for personal or classroom use only by the original purchaser.
Duplication for other classes, an entire school or commercial purposes is strictly prohibited without written permission from the author. To obtain additional licenses for other teachers, please visit:

<http://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Store/Shelley-Gray>

Looking for more unique, engaging resources for your classroom?

Find me on TpT here:

[https://www.teacherspayteachers.com/
Store/Shelley-Gray](https://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Store/Shelley-Gray)

Connect with me on Facebook and join our amazing little community:

[https://www.facebook.com/
teachingresourcesbyshelleygray](https://www.facebook.com/teachingresourcesbyshelleygray)

Let's connect on Pinterest! Follow me here:

<https://www.pinterest.com/shelleygray/>

Visit my blog, Shelley Gray Teaching, for more great classroom ideas!

www.ShelleyGrayTeaching.com

about

These Guided Reading Prompt Cards are intended to increase student engagement during reading and foster comprehension of fiction texts.

Place the cards face-down in a pile. During reading, have students choose a card and complete the task/answer the question.

**Some of the cards are specifically suited to during reading; however many can be used for after reading as well.

Who is the main character of this story?

Which character in this story is most like you?
Why?

Make a text-to-self connection.

Find a word that you have not seen before and explain to your partner why you think it means what you think it means.

Who is the main character of this story?

List three words that describe the main character.

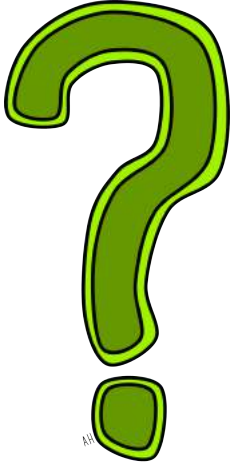

What is the setting of this story?

Is there a problem in this story? What is it?

Predict what will happen next.

Find a NOUN in the book. Is it a person, place, or thing?

Find an ADJECTIVE (describing word) in the book. What does the adjective describe?

Find a VERB (action word) in the book.

Make a text-to-self connection.

Make a text-to-world connection.

Make a text-to-text connection.

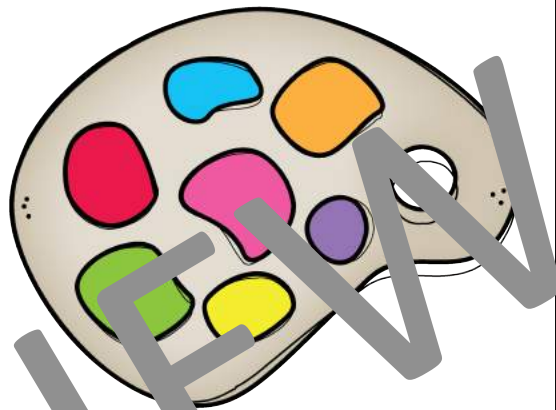

In three sentences or less, tell what this story is about.

Who is the author of this book?

Who is the illustrator of this book?

In what year was this book published?

Find a word that you have not seen before. What do you think it means?

Why do you think the author chose this title for the book?

From whose point of view is this story being told?

Which character in this story is most like you? Why?

What is the genre of this book?

Use the events in the story to create a math story problem.

Choose one sentence and read it aloud with amazing expression!

Are there any features that make this story easier to read? (For example: headings, bold print...)

How do you think this story will end?

Thank-you!

Thank-you for your download ! If you would like to more information about other resources or teaching strategies, please visit my blog:

www.ShelleyGrayTeaching.com

or my Facebook page:

<https://www.facebook.com/teachingresourcesbyselleygray>

Have a wonderful day!

Shelley

Graphics by Whimsy Clips, Classroom Doodle Diva, Rebecca B Designs, Kate Hadfield, and Graphics From The Pond

Copyright Shelley Gray 2018
All rights reserved by the author.