About this Resource

This is a Mix-AND Match set of BOOK-tivities that can be used as a reading response activity in your upper elementary classroom. With the templates included in this package, you will be able to make over ONE HUNDRED different book-tivity combinations! Simply choose the skills you want to emphasize, choose the appropriate templates, and design the ideal book-tivity for your students. You can even Differentiate by having different students work on different skills! This HANDS-ON literature response activity is sure to ENGAGE your students as they respond to literature. Additionally, these are great as a COLORFUL addition to portfolios or to use as a bulletin board display.

The skills that are covered in this resource are directly related to Common Core Standards and include:

- Developing Point of View
- Compare and Contrast (characters)
- Compare and Contrast (books of the same genre)
- Compare and Contrast (books with a similar theme)
- Figurative Language
- Theme
- My Favorite Part
- Synonyms
- Important Quotes
- Making Inferences
- Cause and Effect
- Story Structure
- Asking Questions

- Descriptive Language
- Main Idea and Supporting Details
- How Characters Respond to Challenges
- Summarizing
- Point of View
- Types of Sentences
- Character Development
- Evidence from the Text
- Personal Reflections
- Author's Purpose
- Parts of Speech

Both color and black and white templates are included for each book-tivity. Please only print the pages that you require. Additionally, a blank template is included so that you may add your own ideas should you wish to do so.
