About this Resource

This is a fun little book for students to make as a Thanksgiving activity in your classroom. Students will write and draw pictures for five different open-ended prompts:

← "Thanksgiving is all about..."

"On Thanksgiving..." →

← "Some Thanksgiving memories..."

"Next Thanksgiving I hope..." →

← "I am thankful for..."

Both color and black and white templates are included.

Depending on the age of students that you teach, you may want to prepare parts of this activity for the students. For example, upper elementary students should be able to make this book from start to finish; however if you teach lower elementary students, you may choose to prepare the books ahead of time, and have students simply complete the templates.

For full assembly instructions, please see the next page.
